Words from Fr Brendan Clover

Dear friends,

How kind you have all been with your greetings after my mother's passing! She passed over peacefully on Thursday morning around 9am. She was wonderfully cared for by the staff at Poets Muse. Now she rests in peace.

Her Funeral Mass will be on Friday 24th May at Noon in church. Being the age she was there will be few family attending, she is survived by a younger brother too unwell to travel, but I know that some of you may want to come to support us with your presence and your prayers. I thank you all very much for the way you befriended Joan. She loved coming to church at St John's and Sunday lunch at the Vicarage, until that became too difficult for her.

On Saturday (tomorrow as I write this) the Festival begins with a concert and on Sunday we welcome back our friend Canon Nicola Stanley as our guest preacher at the Solemn Mass of St John at the Latin Gate. Then the parish lunch, and Evening Prayer and Benediction at 5.30pm ends the day.

And next Wednesday Aidan Hart. That talk is at 7.30pm preceded by wine and canapes at 7pm. I hope to see many of you at these celebrations.

Thursday next is Ascension Day, and there are two opportunities to come to Mass to celebrate this great Feast, 12.30pm and 7.30pm.

With my love and prayers,

Fr Brendan

SHINE YOUR LIGHT

We all know the bit in the sermon on the Mount where Our Lord cautions us about hiding our lamps under a bushel basket but instead commands us to let our light shine. We have opportunities for shining lights this spring here at St John's Church! Our Annual Vestry Meeting and APCM is coming up on Sunday 19th May and there are some roles that we need to fill.

Nicola has reached the end of the advisory six years' service as churchwarden and is also ready for a break from PCC. She has kindly agreed to remain Chair of our Finance Committee. I am eager to stand again as churchwarden and I hope that there will be someone in the congregation willing to stand too. The role is both demanding and rewarding. I have loved it so far and obviously Father Brendan is an enormous pleasure to work with. If you would like to find out more about the warden's role, please speak to Nicola, Father Brendan or me and we will tell you more.

We also have three PCC vacancies and an additional Deanery Synod Vacancy (that ex officio gives the holder a seat on the PCC). We would love someone from our church to be our representative on churches Together in Clevedon and we have been trying to recruit a Health and Safety Officer for some time. These roles are less of a time commitment than warden but also very important to the running of our parish life. Could you do one of them?

There is a theory of organisations that says if you have 100 members you have enough people to fill all the slots required without burning out the few enthusiasts. With routinely 60 communicants on a Sunday and twice that at festivals I think that we might be nearly at the point of having 100 active church members. I am always struck by the many hands that make light work at any church event, we usually have loads of people moving the chairs and sweeping up. I'm really hoping that spirit of 'getting stuck in' will be seen with people coming forward to take up our vacant leadership roles next month.

Gary

WANTED!

Small plant pots (suitable for an individual seedling) and multi-pot trays (NOT seed trays). Please see picture below. Sarah is collecting these.

AND IF YOU ARE A GARDENER .....

and are about to sow seeds (flower or vegetable) or divide older plants or take cuttings, please consider doing a few extra to donate to the Parish Plant Sale on 25 May.

VOLUNTEERS PLEASE!

If you would like to take one of the Communion elements to the altar during the offertory hymn, please let one of the sidespeople know when you come into Church on Sunday morning.

Do you have any pearls of wisdom which could be used in the newsletter? They don't need to be religious; perhaps a special gardening tip, favourite recipe or an interesting story you'd like to share with your Church family. You can even remain anonymous if you wish. If so, please speak to Nicola or Gary or email office@stjohns-clevedon.org.uk

Wells Cathedral Parish Pass

You may have seen in the news, that Wells Cathedral has announced changes to its admission guidelines with free passes for parishioners in the Diocese of Bath and Wells and local people, and a new entry charge for tourists.

Entry remains free to enter for worship, prayer, and to light a candle and free passes are available for parishioners in the diocese. Information about the Parish Pass and how to apply for it is available from the Wells passes section of the Wells Cathedral website. You will note that the application form for a Parish Pass does require a signature from a churchwarden or incumbent.
